We understand that every church has different standards concerning a dress code. We do not desire to be legalistic in any way, and our main desire of the conference is to reach the hearts of these teenagers; however, there has to be a line somewhere. We are asking you, as a group leader, to make sure each registered delegate has a copy of the Dress Code.

Our goal is to run a clean conference with a practical, yet modest dress code. To help with this, and to be very clear, we have included pictures of what is considered acceptable for conference. Use these photos to communicate with your teenagers what they need to bring to conference. We have found that it can be very embarrassing and hurtful to delegates if they come unprepared. We do not want that to happen! SO PLEASE HELP US! Be proactive and prepare your teens for conference with this information so once we get there we can have a great time and see lives changed!

Youth leaders and Counselors, please encourage your group to follow the dress code while attending Arise Youth Conference. All fashions worn should be conservative and professing Godliness in appearance.
